1961 SOUTHEAST CONVENTION ISSUE

REV. W. RAYMOND BERRY

Report Of The Moderator

This may prove to be one of the most historic years in the history of the Southeast Convention. "New occasions have taught new duties", and brought new opportunities. These have been faced courageously by the Staff, the Board of Directors, and the Churches.

It was a low moment when the Board of Directors accepted with reluctance the resignation of the Reverend Miss Annie R. Campbell, and were faced with the occasion of her replacement. It was a high moment indeed when months later the Committee to Secure a Minister of Christian Education presented the name and person of the Reverend Miss Emilie F. Pitcock as their choice for the position.

Another matter of newness with potential history-making consequence is the voting on the Constitution of the United Church of Christ by the churches. The Board of Directors approved the Constitution and recommended that all of our churches vote on it before the deadline of June 1, 1961. It is my firm conviction that when the votes are tabulated, our Convention will reveal itself as a body of cooperative churches whose purpose is to be an integral part of the new adventure into Christian unity through the United Church.

Our Christian World Mission giving the past year was the greatest in our history. If we continue faithfully with the increase as our Home Board subsidy is reduced, we shall be able to continue on our "Program of Progress."

It has been a pleasure to work so closely with some of the most capable

Has Your Church Voted?

When this issue of The Southeast News went to press thirty-seven of the churches of the Southeast Convention had voted on the proposed constitution for the United Church.

Thirty-one churches have voted approval. Five churches have voted against. One church has voted to abstain.

It is anticipated that by the time of the annual meeting when this report is read additional churches will have voted. Up to date figures will be given at that time.

Across the nation, of the churches voting, more than 90% have voted approval.

REV. FRED HOSKINS

The Keynote Speaker

The Reverend Doctor Fred Hoskins, Minister and Secretary of the General Council of Congregational Christian Churches, is the keynote speaker for the Ninth Annual Sessions of the Southeast Convention.

Dr. Hoskins serves also as co-president of the United Church of Christ, the new fellowship resulting from the union of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the General Council of Congregational Christian Churches.

Prior to his election to the office of Minister and Secretary of the General Council, Dr. Hoskins was pastor of the First Congregational Church, Oak Park, Ill. Other pastorates served include Plymouth Congregational Church, Des Moines, Iowa, and United Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Connecticut.

Dr. Hoskins received his B. A. degree from Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill., and his B. D. degree from Yale Divinity School.

He is a member of the Executive Committee of the International Congregational Council and of the General Board of the National Council of Churches.

Dr. and Mrs. Hoskins have three children: Rev. Robert W. Hoskins, associate minister of the United Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Conn.; Rev. Theodore G. Hoskins, a minister at Saugatuck Congregational Church, Westport, Conn.; and Mary Ellen, a student. Their home is in Stamford, Connecticut.

Dr. Hoskins is co-editor of "A Book of Worship for Free Churches."

Christian Education Committee Report

Several important things have happened in the Southeast Convention during the past year in Christian Education. The Nursery materials, the first part of the United Church Curriculum, are available and are being put to use in many of our churches with the wise counsel of Mrs. Kermit Harris and Mrs. Carl Sanford, who attended the Preschool Conference at Elmhurst two years ago from our area. This fall the Kindergarten courses will be ready and we all look forward to these excitedly.

During August three, Leadership Growth Workshops were held, with very small attendance, but giving us valuable insights toward the planning of future leadership training.

The Christian Education Committee, with small attendance, met in December to review the work of Christian education in the Southeast Convention and make plans for the future. We missed the inspiration and guidance of Miss Campbell at this meeting. At this time the schedule for the Rev. Miss Leila W. Anderson was planned and left to the Association chairmen of South Alabama, East Alabama, and North Alabama to work out in detail. Miss Anderson, the Pilgrim Circuit Rider, is spending time in these areas of Alabama over a period of several years, working with churches as part of her specific responsibility in Christian education. She is always a welcome visitor in the Southeast Convention.

The Rev. Clarence W. Baldwin has worked closely with the Pilgrim Fellowship officers in planning for the Pilgrim Fellowship Annual Meeting in Birmingham. The P. F.'ers asked the support of the committee in planning a P & T (Planning and Training) Conference for local P. F. officers. The committee voted to support this venture and cleared the weekend of August 25-27, 1961, at Southern Union College for this important meeting.

The schedule of Camps and Conferences was reviewed. Most of them seemed to be under way in their planning. Leaders of the conferences were urged to attend the Deans Training Conference at Avon Park, Florida. It is always distressing to find that the Christian Education Committee offers so little assistance in planning the summer activities for the convention young people. Perhaps this is the fault of the Committee.

In January, as Christian Education

Report Of Committee Survey And Church Aid

It is a dangerous practice to rely on statistics alone to measure the spiritual health of the churches in the Southeast Convention, but the Year Book provides us with some interesting comparisons. These statistics are interesting but of little value unless they provoke in us some genuine concern and straight thinking.

Comparing the Year Book of 1950 with that of 1959, we note the following — a net loss of five churches and an approximate loss of 7% in membership — happily this is offset by a surprising 60% increase in Church School. This, in turn, is balanced by a puzzling paradox of a 10% decrease in young people's organizations.

In the nine year period, seven new churches came into existence, and we may presume the twelve we lost had to do with poor leadership.

Within the last year two additional churches may be reported. Huntsville, Alabama, and Montgomery, Alabama, the latter just getting started due to the enterprise of a layman known to many, Millard Fuller.

It is our hope that we will soon have reason to call upon you to put the Church Builders Club into action. If you know unchurched areas, keep us informed. This fellowship of ours can only grow when all of us help it grow.

Arnold Slater, Chairman
Committee on Survey and Church Aid

Chairman, I attended the National Workshop on Leadership Education at Lisie, New York. Here I was in on the planning of future leadership training in the form of CEA (Christian Education Associates) Area Workshops, similar to the workshops held here last summer. It is exciting to be in on the training of a corps of Christian education leaders for our churches. All areas of the country are growing in Christian leadership under this new plan, and the Southeast Convention is certainly part of that growth because of the dedicated leadership of those in our churches who indicate interest in this work. We look forward to our work with our new Minister of Christian Education, the Rev. Miss Emilie F. Pitcock.

Report Of The Women's Fellowship

One of our Mission themes for this year, "Go Ye Into All the World", has become more real to me as I have traveled throughout the Convention as a representative of our Women's Fellowship.

I have attended 24 meetings, which is about two months away from home. This includes rallies, retreats, board of directors, and local churches of the Convention, national meeting at Buck Hill Falls, Pa., and regional meeting at Talladega, Alabama.

Through these meetings I have not only promoted Women's Fellowship work, but also the Southeast News, United Church Herald, Guide Post, Our Christian World Mission, Christian Higher Education, and the United Church of Christ.

The Fellowship has grown in many ways. An increase of Woman's Gift and State Expense, of better attendance at meetings, of the 60 active fellowships, 49 were represented at the Spring Rallies. The Convention Fellowship now has a budget of $900.00 as an outgrowth of the planning session at Atlanta, we now have many trained and active leaders in the Convention to carry on the work.

Many thanks to the women of the Convention, and all others who have helped to make this one of the happiest and best years of my work in Women's Fellowship.

The Superintendent's Corner

Once again it falls to me to present to you various statistics relating to the Southeast Convention. Some of them are of more than passing interest.

According to the best of our calculations there now are 114 churches in the Convention — two less than last year. The total membership of the churches is 9529, a decrease of 49 from last year. These figures give cause for concern. Of the 114 churches, 6 are inactive.

In order to reverse the trend in the decreasing number of churches and members we must put greater effort and more money into church extension and our existing churches must do a better job in securing new members.

We report 97 Sunday Schools with a membership of 6135 — an increase over last year. Also reported are 46 young people's organizations, with a membership of 912 — and this also represents an increase. However, it is difficult to determine whether the figures indicate actual growth or better reporting on the part of the churches.

The financial figures are better. As reported elsewhere, there is an increase of OCWM to $31,773. Total benevolences reported increased from $37,508 last year to $45,785 for 1960. The amount expended for "Home Expenses" increased from $406,404 in 1959 to $414,838 in 1960. The value of church property increased from $3,533,700 to $3,754,000. 36 parsonages are reported this year — one more than last.

What do these figures mean? I'm not sure, other than that they represent a challenge!

The Southern Union College

WALTER A. GRAHAM, President

Several important developments have occurred during the past year and they are reported to the churches and the members of the Southeast Convention with real joy and thanksgiving.

An eight room addition to Pilgrim Hall was completed and dedicated.

The college was the recipient of a Harvest Festival, promoted mainly by Moderator John D. Schofield, Moderator of the East Alabama Association.

The 100% renovation of and addition of 15 new rooms to Kimball Hall with adequate bathing and toilet facilities was completed and dedicated.

Through the generosity of Heifer Project, Incorporated, by way of churches and individuals, many Evangelical and Reformed in Illinois, Pennsylvania, Indiana, and Massachusetts, the college has a herd of 15 cows, one bull, and 6 calves, the latter all born or purchased since Christmas.

The first check from the National Women's Fellowship for the new library, their Women's Gift project for 1961-1962, totalling $50,000.00, has been received in the sum of $15,655.45. The construction will be started when the total amount is in hand.

The Churchmen's Brotherhood, national men's organization of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, adopted the college as its 1961 project, meaning a gift of $30,000.00. The Executive Committee decided this should be invested in improving our science facilities, so a two-story addition to Elder Hall, with two new rooms on each floor, has been planned for the fall of 1961. The project will include the cost of the building and brand new equipment which is sorely needed.

The college is the proud owner (with the Bank of Wadley) of a 1961 9-passenger Ford station wagon, the first new car the college has ever owned. It is used, with two vehicles purchased from the Alabama Surplus, to transport the athletic team, the choir and officials of the college on trips for college business.

Summer school will start on June 12 and will run for six weeks. Applications are being received, both for the summer school and for the fall quarter,

Report Of Churchmen's Fellowship

Dr. Robert V. Moss Jr., president of Lancaster Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and William E. Peterson, National Director of the Laymen's Fellowship of Congregational Christian Churches, St. Louis, Missouri, will be guest leaders at the Churchmen's Fellowship Retreat to be held at Southern Union College, Wadley, Alabama, June 9-11, 1961. The Rev. James H. Lightbourne Jr., superintendent of the Southeast Convention, and Dr. Walter A. Graham, president of Southern Union College, will also be with us. Dr. Moss is a native of North Carolina and a noted Bible scholar and will come to us from a very busy schedule.

Lanett church sent four men to the Joint National Convention of Churchmen in St. Louis, Missouri, in August, 1960. They were: Bill Hodnett, John Dollar, Gwen Holley, and Davis Holman. Also attending were Pressley Ingram, Birmingham, and Dr. Walter A. Graham, Wadley. Hubert Richter, Cullman, Alabama, president of the North Alabama United Churchmen's Fellowship, and W. H. Koehler, Birmingham, were representatives from the E & R churches in this area.

Your president had a very happy experience at a Protestant Men's Convention held at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, June 21-23, 1960. This was an Eastern area meeting of the Men of the Chapel, the Protestant men's organization of our armed forces. It was a thrill to learn that our national military leaders realize the value of the men in the armed forces maintaining and strengthening their ties with men's religious activities.

27 men attended the 1960 Retreat held at Clairmont Springs, Alabama, in May, 1960. We had outstanding leadership, including Dr. Kenneth Kohler, secretary of the E & R Churchmen's which will begin on September 11, 1961. Mrs. Dorothy Cash Hicks is the Admissions Counsellor and will be delighted, as will all other college officials, to talk with ministers or parents about prospective students.

The total cash and pledges received on the three year goal of $287,750.00 is now $204,505.60.

Our sincere thanks are gratefully extended to all who have made this year an outstanding one and we urge you to visit the campus at every possible chance.

Congregational Christian Foundation Of Vanderbilt

It is an axiom, supported by history, that no movement, institution or nation is better than its leadership.

The Foundation has the specific responsibility of discovering potential leadership for the churches of the Southeast Convention and then giving them financial assistance while attending Vanderbilt as students.

We ask laity and ministers alike to assist the Foundation in two ways:

1. Look for and encourage young people who express an interest in religious leadership, especially the ministry.
 2. In preparing your church budget and in considering your own personal giving, keep the Foundation in mind.
- Our Superintendent, James H. Lightbourne Jr., thoroughly endorses the Foundation. Mrs. Edward L. Askren Jr. is secretary and Rev. Clyde C. Flannery is treasurer. We will be pleased to give any additional information you may need.

Arnold Slater, Chairman

Brotherhood, St. Louis, Missouri; Supt. James H. Lightbourne Jr., and Southern Union College president, Dr. Walter A. Graham. A number of E & R men attended.

Several new men's organizations were formed during the year, and some observed Laymen's Sunday in October. Your president was the speaker at Lanett on Laymen's Sunday. He also spoke to the men of Antioch (Roanoke), Elder and Tallassee churches during the year.

Rufus Obrecht, Chattanooga, Tennessee, represented the Southeast Convention Churchmen's Fellowship at the Mid-Winter Meeting at Buck Hill Falls, Pennsylvania, this past January.

A periodic newsletter has been sent out to the men of the Convention area. We appreciate the cooperation of the churches in supplying mailing lists. Those of you who have not sent in names for a Convention-wide mailing list should do so as soon as possible. We will soon be sending out information concerning registration for the June Retreat. More information concerning the Retreat will be available at the Knoxville meeting, and we hope to see a large number of men there.

Committee On Stewardship And Missionary Education

It is indeed heartening to note that the churches of the Southeast Convention showed an increase in their giving to Our Christian World Mission in 1960. The grand total of $31,773.00 was contributed — an increase of $1,253.00 over 1959.

When the $4,543.00 contributed to the Christian Higher Education Fund is added to this, making a total of $36,316.00, there is indeed reason to take pride in our accomplishments.

However, there is a less heartening side. The increase for OCWM was the smallest in several years. Thirty-three of our active churches made no contribution to OCWM or CHEF.

The committee would urge all of the churches to participate in our mutual concerns. A church that is not concerned for missions must question whether it really is a church at all.

Our national fellowship is setting a goal of $11,500,000 for OCWM by the end of 1962. We will want to do our share. If we do our share, we will also continue on our Program of Progress.

Next fall an Every-Church-Visitation is planned for the Convention. We urge the churches and the ministers to cooperate in this effort to the fullest.

Rev. A. Ray Meserve, Chairman

Report Of Committee On Ministry And The Churches

Since the last annual meeting of the Convention the committee has sponsored two Minister's Convocations.

In May of last year a convocation was held at Camp Winnataska, near Birmingham. Rev. Russell T. Loesch, Minister to Chaplains of our Fellowship, and Rev. Henry Smith Leiper, formerly Minister of the Missions Council, were the guest leaders.

In November of last year the fall convocation was held at Southern Union College in the new wing of Kimball Hall. Prof. Carl J. Landes and Supt. James H. Lightbourne Jr. were the leaders.

The spring convocation for this year will be held at Southern Union College May 9-11. Rev. Serge F. Hummon, secretary for the Town and Country Church, will present and lead discussions on matters relating to his field. Rev. A. Ray Meserve will be the leader on the topic of "Christian Stewardship."

Report Of The Committee On Christian Social Action

1. With the increasing use of alcoholic beverages in our country, especially among our young people, we recommend that our churches use every possible means to educate our people to the evils and consequences of alcohol. An excellent booklet for study by both young people and adults is the May 1957 issue of Social Action magazine entitled "Alcohol: A National Problem." Reprints may be ordered from the Council for Christian Social Action.

2. Parents and other thoughtful citizens have been viewing with alarm the large number of obscene magazines and pocket books on sale at news-stands throughout the country. Although the most effective way to combat this menace is through home training and our refusal as church members to purchase the material, there are other ways to deal with the problem. We recommend that local church groups make a survey of the situation in their communities and discuss the matter with the local men responsible for displaying and selling the books and magazines. Most local dealers are forced to take this obscene material through a package contract, but they do not have to display or sell it. They are given credit for all unsold copies. Social Action magazine for November 1959 is a good study guide for action.

3. Looking forward to the United Church's organization on the Convention level, the South and the South Indiana Synod and/or their successors be invited to send fraternal delegates to all future meetings of the Southeast Convention.

We recommend that our parents do at least two things to combat this: First, carefully select the programs their children are permitted to see; and, second, write letters of protest to the local radio and television stations carrying the program. The reaction of the public can and will have an effect on the type of programs presented.

5. We recommend to our churches the three resolutions adopted by the Council for Christian Social Action and commended to the conferences, synods, and churches for study and action. We urge our people to implement the resolution on Migratory Agricultural La-

The Rev. Miss Emilie F. Pitcock, newly appointed Minister of Christian Education for the Southeast Convention, will begin her new duties June 1st.

Miss Pitcock has tendered her resignation as pastor of the Casco-Raymond United Parish in Maine to take effect the end of May following a much needed vacation. She then will move to Atlanta and assume her new responsibilities.

A native of Ohio, Miss Pitcock is a graduate of Schaufler College and of Yale Divinity School.

As can be seen from her picture, Miss Pitcock is cheerful, attractive, and friendly. In addition, she brings to her work a wealth of practical experience and ability.

bor by supporting appropriate legislation in their respective states, by making a special effort to express Christian love and concern for all migratory workers in their community, and by cooperating with local and state agencies concerned with the plight of the migrant. The other two resolutions deserve careful study and implementation in the light of our Christian faith and responsibility.

6. We commend to those concerned with any one or all of these problems the Social Action Institute at Blue Ridge, N. C., June 19-23, 1961.

Respectfully submitted,
